
32nd HBA JOHN J. EIKENBURG LAW WEEK FUN RUN

Benefiting THE CENTER, making independent and productive lives possible for those with intellectual disabilities in our community.

Saturday, March 11, 2017 7:15 a.m. Sam Houston Park - Downtown

Join the fun and support THE CENTER at the Houston Bar Association's 32nd John J. Eikenburg Law Week Fun Run, the only 8K race of its kind.

All events begin at Sam Houston Park and are open to the public.

7:15 a.m. Announcements
7:30 a.m. Non-competitive 1K children's run
7:50 a.m. 8K wheelchair start
8:00 a.m. Individual 8K and team 8K start*
8:30 a.m. Non-competitive one-mile family walk

THE CENTER is a private, nonprofit United Way agency that provides education, job training, socialization, and health care to developmentally disabled persons. Over the life of the race, the Eikenburg Law Week Fun Run has raised more than $1.3M for THE CENTER.

The post-event festivities in Sam Houston Park feature live music, refreshments, an awards ceremony honoring the winners, and drawings for prizes donated by local merchants. All participants will receive commemorative T-shirts.

Entry fees for individuals are $35 for the 8K run and $18 for the one-mile children's run and family walk. Three-person team entry fee is $330.
